

6 February 2012

Dear ILERA colleagues,

April 1 is the early bird registration deadline to register at the early bird price for the ILERA 16th World Congress, Philadelphia, July 2-5, 2012. Have you registered for the conference? If so, great! If not, please see steps 1-4 at bottom.

We look forward to welcoming you in Philadelphia.

Cordially,
Janice Bellace and the Organizing Team

---

1. Register - <http://www.ilera2012.com/Registration/default.asp>

Regular early bird registration for the 2012 World Congress is $475 before April 1. Note: you must register before you will be able to take advantage of the deeply discounted hotel room rates (of about $185 per night) at the Downtown Marriott Hotel.

* In Philadelphia at the time of the congress, the discount for ILERA's individual members will be applied.

2. Reserve your hotel room - <http://www.ilera2012.com/Registration/default.asp>

As soon as you register, you will be able to transfer to the Marriott Hotel's special access webpage for ILERA registrants. If your travel plans change later, you will be able to go back to this website and modify your arrival and departure dates. The ILERA hotel is the Downtown Marriott Hotel. All world congress sessions will take place at this hotel. You can read more about the congress hotel at this webpage.

<http://www.ilera2012.com/Accommodations/default.asp>

3. Please review program and get more information - You can find the outline of the program for the 16th World Congress online at <http://www.ilera2012.com/Congress-Program/default.asp>. More information concerning the program will be put on the website in March, and there will be periodic updates to this posted information.

4. Start making your travel arrangements. Arrange for your visa for entry into the United States (if needed). <http://www.ilera2012.com/General-Information/default.asp>